Senior Class History

Our great class congregated for the first time in September of 1961 with sixty-eight fun loving kids present and Mrs. Stiver as our teacher. We all felt very sorry for poor little Mike Rohrs when he got a spanking during our singing period. If you ever wondered who it was screaming with pain during nap-time, chances are it was Johanna Orthman. See Mary Leinard had this thing about leaving teeth marks all over Johanna's legs.

First grade and none of us knew what to expect. Especially Suzanne Jackson who walked all the way home one day because she had forgotten her lunch and someone told her if you didn't have your lunch you couldn't eat in the cafeteria.

Lynn Kraly came in second grade and caused trouble right away. Lynn let Julie Slusher peel her Indian Corn which was against the rules and Mrs. Birkhold had to give a lecture entitled "Not Peeling Anyone's Corn But Your Own."

The neatest thing that happened to us in the third grade was our one and only bomb scare! Which really shook up Madonna Koenn . . . we had to go to the Methodist Church and she was afraid they wouldn't let her in because she wasn't Methodist!

I'm sure Rena Haynes remembers in fourth grade the day Ron Gross got in trouble. Of course, it's always funny when someone gets in trouble and Rena was laughing. Evidently Mrs. Ebersole didn't think it was hilarious and made Rena bend over her desk and spanked her. The spanking wasn't so bad, it's just that Rena was right in style with her short dress and her unmentionables showed!

Seems fifth grade was really rough on Bev Boger and Rhetta Shock. Bev got caught rewriting a filth letter authored by Rhetta to one of their least liked classmates.

In sixth grade, one of our best kept secrets was exposed . . . Georgie Geyer and Dougie Stevenson took tap dancing lessons. If you can get them going, you'd almost swear they are Fred Astaire's nephews!

Then we were no longer little kids, we were big, bad Junior High kids! We got to change classes, and get lost, and meet the other high school kids, and bug Mr. Brown! Out of every class there has to be at least one uncoordinated person . . . Carolyn Hammond dropped her pencil and as she was leaning over to pick it up her whole desk fell over with her in it!

Who can forget our eighth grade Ohio History projects? Renee Shidler got so shook up because Lee Ann Goeltzenleuchter and Michelle Stevens were laughing at her that she ran back in the coat check and wouldn't come out.

We graduated Junior High and were full fledged high school students. In freshman Science class, Mrs. McCormack told Tom Major he was God's gift to humanity . . . wonder if that's better than being God's gift to woman? Remember the day we came to school and all our books weren't in our lockers but all over the halls? Thanks go to Mike, Clair, Steve and Dave for that feat!

It seems there were a few Sophomores who had a five day vacation . . . alcohol is for medical purposes, not drinking Lori, Linda, Rhetta, Susie, and Mary!

In our Junior year we were busy working hard on our class play, "The Cataclysmic Loves of Cooper and Looper and their Friend who was Squashed by a Moving Van."

Now comes our Senior year . . . Julie Slusher and Susie Culler left their mark in the chem lab by letting sulphur drop on the floor . . . Clair McCalla did well in basketball by making two points for Wayne Trace . . . Miss Shaw kept us in hand with her daily question, "Have you girls been freshly smoking?" And graduation.

Graduation
Is an end,
But also
A beginning . . .
The start
Of all the dreams
That every graduate
Is spinning.

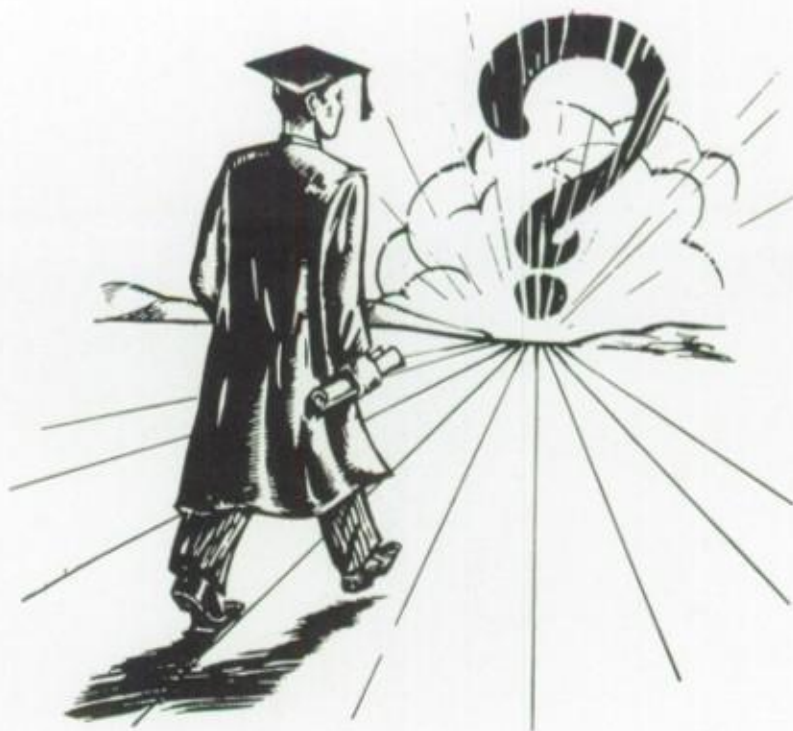

Graduation
Is sighs and laughter
Mingled liberally
With tears,
Lingering memories
Of one's sharing
Life with classmates
Through the years.

Graduation is conclusion
Of one big phase
Of work and fun,
A milestone passed,
New things begun.

Graduation
Is excitement,
Speeches,
Farewells
And applause,
Diplomas
And a mortarboard . . .
The gate
To pathways
Unexplored.

THE EXCITING MOMENT ...

January 27 marks the date of our first game in the new gym, also Homecoming 1973. The student body voted Ron Gross and Susan Culler as 1973 King and Queen (top left). Rhett Shock and Mike Rohrs were the Senior attendants (bottom left).

Our Jr. attendants this year were Vicki Mosier escorted by Howie Gill (top left), Tammy Schaffer and Gary Hughes were chosen for Sophomore attendants (top right) and Laura Cottrell and Rusty Billman were our Freshman Attendants (bottom left).

Prom*

Mr. Falkenberg played our "little ray of sunshine" for the 73-74 Junior-Senior Prom. From the looks of these pictures the students and teachers seemed to have a nice time.

SENIOR

TIM

Tim Bowers, 5'7", 137 lbs., Senior Co-Captain Guard is the smallest guy on the team but he made up for his lack of size with hard work and leadership. A good streak shooter, Tim's season high was 17 against the second game with Paulding.

MIKE

"Floyd" Rohrs, 6'1", 178 lbs., Senior Co-Captain led in assists and free throw shooting. His primary strength was offense where he could be counted to score in double figures as a forward.

SENIOR

JIM

Jim Lichty, 5'8", 148 lbs. Senior Guard. Because of his quickness he was the outstanding team defensive player. He usually guarded the other team's best guard. Season total was 125 points with his high game of 19 against Paulding the first game.

CLAIR

"E Clair" McCalla 6'2", 177 lbs., Senior Forward. Clair proved his strong rebounding and extremely aggressive playing during his first year of varsity ball. He alternated as a starter and substitute starter forward.

SENIOR

SENIOR

DAVE

"Carrot" Atchley, 5'8", 135 lbs., Guard or Forward. A good ball handler although not one of the quickest players. He was a hard worker and was always there to fill in when needed.

DAVE

"Clancy" McCalla 6'3", 195 lbs., Junior Center, averaged 21.7 points per game with a high of 32 in one game. His main strength was on the boards, though, with a high game of 23 and an average of 13.7 rebounds per game. He was named to the All-District Conference Teams.

JUNIOR

JUNIOR

ROYCE

"Stick" Underwood 6'1", 155 lbs., Junior Forward or Guard. His primary strength was his attitude, he is a hard worker and does a good job on the boards for his size but is reluctant to shoot. His ball handling is improving.

GREG

"Frankie" Franklin 5'8", 1 lbs., Junior Guard. Played both Varsity and reserve. He was an excellent free throw shooter making 18 of 20 in one reserve game. His varsity season high was 10 points in tournament play and should be a good factor in varsity offense next year.

JUNIOR

JOE

"Blob" Smalley 6'3" 170 lbs. Junior Forward. Strong on the boards, Joe had a high rebounding game of 15. A good shooter, he needs to work on moves around the basket.

JUNIOR

JIM

"Pistol Pete" Leslie 5'9" 132 lbs. Junior Guard. Played varsity and reserve. Although he lacks aggressiveness and has average speed, he's the best ball handler on the team and should be a strong guard for varsity next year.

JUNIOR

LARRY

"Lawrence" Miller 5'11" 155 lbs., Sophomore Guard. A good shooter, Larry moves well with the ball. He needs work on spotting the open man but should be a strong asset to the team next year.

SOPHOMORE

MAURICE

"Moe" Cottrell, 6'2" 210 lbs., Sophomore Forward. Physically the strongest man on the team, he split his time between varsity and reserve. Aggressive on the boards, he is beginning to develop a soft touch on the baskets. He should develop into a strong forward.

What your job competition tomorrow... will be wearing this year

Consider this — employers know how valuable Air Force training is. The finest schools teach top-pay skills like jet engine mechanic, electronic data processing, avionics, accountant and hundreds of other technical and administrative specialties. Are you willing to let the other guy have all this — plus good pay, paid vacations, the very best of medical care and travel and excitement, too. Get the jump on your competition — See your Air Force Recruiter for the full story.

Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.
